

JK Nuggets

This week in JK we...

- Practiced how to say "Hello, How are you?" as well as some responses in Spanish during Greeting.
- Had an Easter egg hunt with our mentors! Each egg had a clue inside to lead us to the next egg.
- Saw the older kids' gymnastics performances. We can't wait until we are older when we can showcase our skills!
- Read a book about Llamas and measured our own llama stuffies using Unifix Cubes in math.
- Played in our new dramatic play area, which has turned into the Andes Mountains in Peru!
